

Climate and Sustainability Festival 2019

DR. CLAIRE WORDLEY

Dr. Claire Wordley is a biodiversity scientist in Department of Zoology, University of Cambridge. She has studied how land use change affects animals, and the effectiveness of different conservation solutions. More recently she has become engaged in how climate change will impact on biodiversity loss and humanity, and what we can do to avoid this disaster.