

Climate and Sustainability Festival 2019

NICOLA TERRY

Nicola Terry is a consultant (associate of Cambridge Architectural Research and Cambridge Energy). She mainly does research in energy use in buildings. She also volunteers with Cambridge Carbon Footprint and Transition Cambridge and has been an active member of Transition Cambridge since it started in 2008, especially in the energy group. They explore ways to reduce our carbon footprint through reducing energy consumption and generating renewable energy.